OLD BUSINESS

June was an eventful month.

The Post, along with our Scouts, looked sharp at the Memorial Day Parade in Palatka.

The Commander, Don Hartsfield, presented awards to several deserving JROTC Cadets at the High School.

At about the same time, Errol Houck presented similar awards at the Elementary School.

Bruce Howe and Ron Sliter attended the 103rd Convention as our delegates. They reported on the elections of new officers and that updates to the bylaws and constitution should occur this year. Overall, they stated it is an excellent event that more Legionnaires should attend.

Attendance was down at all Post events this month. We hope to see a better turn out this month. Despite that, the Dinner Dance and Breakfast were fun and successful.

Thanks to everyone who worked hard to put together, run, and support each event, especially Harry Klein and Jim Dandeneau who volunteered to fill in at the Breakfast since Paul and CJ were unavailable.

ANNUAL DUES

NEW BUSINESS

Congratulations are in order for Bruce Howe, who was elected as District Commander.

Our Financial Officer-Elect, Regina Hartsfield, resigned for personal reasons and Ed Ralosky volunteered and was confirmed in a special election.

Jet stated that she is stepping down from some of her other activities in order to focus on Bingo.

She wants to open an additional Bingo session on Thursday evenings to bring in some more funds that will be split between the post and purchasing and new bingo board and machine. The Post approved the idea as a monthly trial to see how it goes. The additional bingo days will start in August, every Thursday at 6:30pm.

The Post and Scouts will be participating in the Interlachen Independence Day Parade on July 4th. We will meet in uniform at the Fleet Reserve on July 4th NLT 9:15am. Parade begins at 10am.

Please help us decorate the float on Sunday, July 3 starting between 12:30 and 1PM at the Legion.

The Ladies and the Post have matched funds to purchase some new decorations for the float.

Newly elected and past officers should bring a redacted copy of their DD214s to Errol or the Adjutant in order for the Post to create accurate biographies of each officer.

BSA TROOP 493 UPDATE

BSA Troop 493 has been busy the past couple of months preparing for Summer Camp.

Scout Leaders and Legionnaires CJ Myers and Paul Warring, along with several other scout leaders, took the scouts Camp Shands in Hawthorne from June 19 through June 25.

There the scouts learned all sorts of outdoor and life skills, in the form of Merit Badges, from Basketry and Pottery, to Citizenship in the Nation and Canoeing. Two scouts too the Lifeguard Course and only need to pass the written exam to be fully qualified. Some even conquered their fears on the rappel tower.

All left having a great sense of accomplishment and a ton of fun.
